

MEETING & EATING

Happy New Year from all at Jerwood Space!

Come and sample our new Café 171 menu and make use of our competitively-priced rooms with a view in 2008. If you've got to have that meeting, why not take a break from the office and 'meet and eat' here? With the Gallery and performers taking their own break from rehearsals (who knows who you might bump into...?) it's an exciting, contemporary and creative environment for working people in search of something fresh.
