However, availability of subsidy and space is limited. To help us select those who will best benefit from subsidised rehearsal space, you should first call or email in good time to check availability of space during your preferred working period. We would then like to see a brief project proposal to include the following information where possible:

- A brief description of the project to be rehearsed or developed. We prioritise work towards performance.
- Dates of rehearsal/development period. While occasional last-minute space is possible, 4-9 months notice is helpful.
- A budget indicating production costs and the amount allocated to rehearsal space, along with any other income (public or private). (NB: we cannot offer maximum subsidy to revenue clients of any public funding body).
- A summary of the company or artists' work to date, with any relevant critiques, reviews, references and CVs. (Subsidy is only available to those who have completed professional training and/or have some track record with performance projects at professional venues.)
- A description of the company's status (e.g. charitable) and names of mentors, trustees or advisory board;
- Marketing information, print, fund-raising achievements and any examples of work on video or other media; dates of upcoming shows when we can see your work; information about performance venue(s)/touring details and relevant contacts.

Following this, we'd like to meet and discuss the project with you. However, it is essential that the involvement of the Jerwood Space in terms of time and level of subsidy is discussed and agreed BEFORE any applications are submitted to funding bodies.

Selected companies/artists will demonstrate:

- vision and commitment
- excellence in performance
- sound management & administration

We hope to respond to this within four weeks of receipt. Thank you for your interest.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Lee
